FACE OF MASCONOMET

WITHIN THOSE BRICK-FACED WALLS
LIVES A MEDLEY OF MEMORIES
– A KALEIDOSCOPE OF FACETS AND FACES
EXISTENT STILL IN THE REALMS OF THE IMAGINATION

DOWN THE LONELY CORRIDORS OF THE MIND
ECHO THE PEALS OF LAUGHTER AND THE ANGUISHED CRIES,
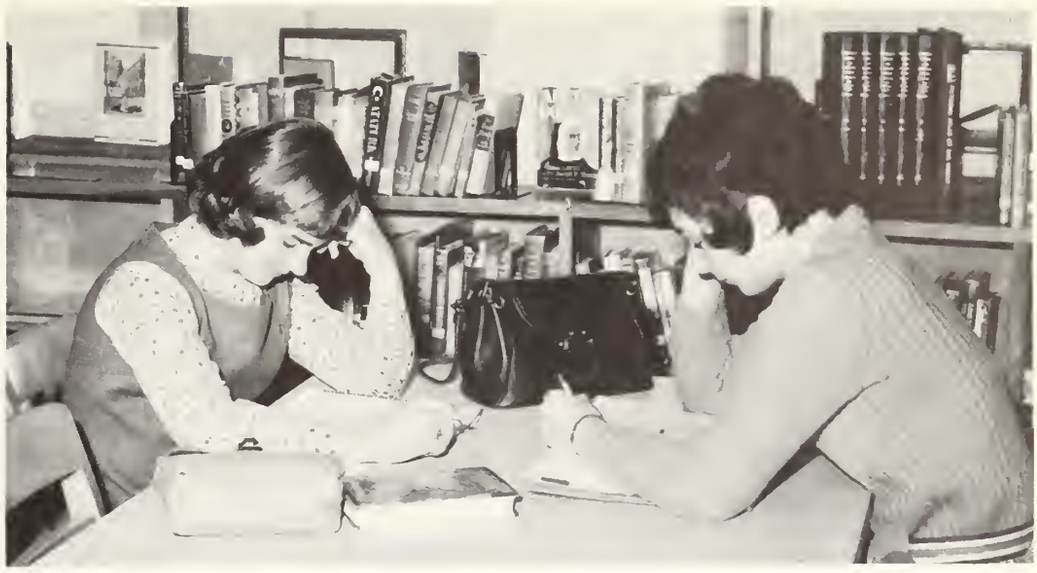
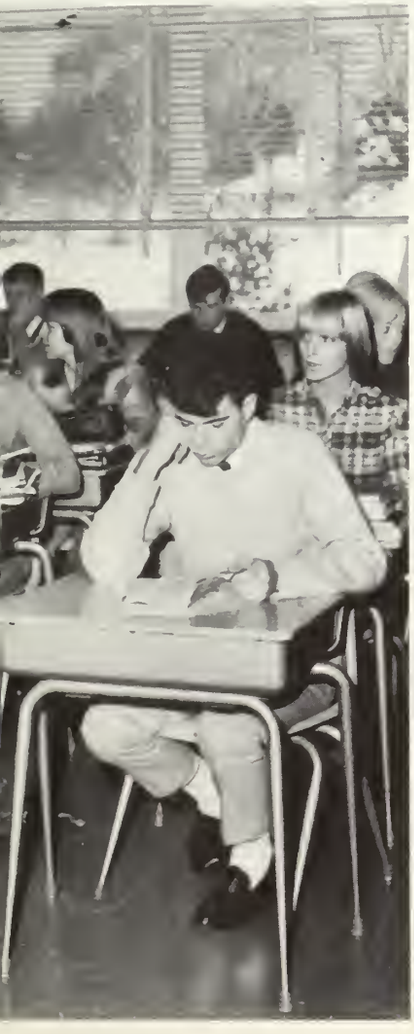
THE APATHY AND THE FERVENT PASSION
OF SIX ADOLESCENT YEARS.
THESE MIXED EMOTIONS

SPILL INTO THE STUDIES
IN WHISPERING LIBRARIES,
AT CRAM SESSIONS,
IN LONELY ROOMS LATE AT NIGHT.





YET ENDLESS NOTES, THE PRESSURE, THE EXAMS

ARE FORGOTTEN IN THE EXCITEMENT OF WILD CHEERING

OUR TEAMS ON TO VICTORY.

AND WHEN THE EXCITEMENT AND PRESSURE BECOME OVERWHELMING, RELEASE IS FOUND

ON STAGE, IN SHOP, ON PAPER, IN THE ART LAB,

ON THE DANCE FLOOR.

PEOPLE REACH OUT
TO ONE ANOTHER
IN FELLOWSHIP, FRIENDSHIP, AND COMPANIONSHIP.

AND MEMORIES OF THESE FACES OF MASCONOMET
ARE KEPT LOCKED
FROM DISILLUSIONMENT AND TIME.

DEDICATION

Youth, the hope for the future, must be educated to fulfill its destiny. Arousing enthusiasm for knowledge, then, is the constant goal of any teacher. Mr. LoPilato has achieved this aim through his general and physical science classes and his four years as class advisor. We, as seniors, recall with special fondness and respect the many hours he contributed to the Junior Prom and the Senior Frolics. In silent but heartfelt applause, as a token of our gratitude and respect, we dedicate this MITOBO of 1966 to Mr. Ralph LoPilato.

FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS MR. JULIUS MUELLER

The future of mankind depends upon the enlightenment of each individual person, working to the fullest of his Godgiven talents, to effect for all peoples a world at peace. For a world at peace with honor has been Man's ageless goal. May the lessons that you have learned at Masconomet abide with you always and guide you towards your future success and happiness. May they also enable you to contribute importantly to this larger goal -- securing the peace of the world.

As I now congratulate each of you upon achieving this important milestone in your education, I would remind you that education is a continuing process. I hope you will always call upon the staff at Masconomet whenever we can be of help to you in the years ahead.

Julius H. Mueller

PRINCIPAL MR. CORRIDON TRASK

"Some men succeed because they are destined to, but most men succeed because they are determined to."

Success is generally accepted as worthy of an investment of our time, talents, and energies . . . but whatever it is that we call success has a way of changing when we pursue it.

My best message to each of you in the Class of 1966 is contained in the following quotation:

"Possessions, outward success, publicity, luxury -- to me these have always been contemptible. I believe that a simple and unassuming manner of life is best for everyone, best both for the body and the mind."

. . . Albert Einstein . . .

God bless each of you in your life ahead.

Corridon Trask Jr.

MEMORIES

Reflecting upon the last six years at Masconomet, a graduating senior may well wonder where time has taken him. Everything was so much a part of the present that the past appeared amorphous and even non-existent. Time was measured by the next test, the next class, the next game.

Time. It whipped him through the turbulent junior high years, those moments of excitement and newness, when he stared at frogs and conjugations with an equally dubious eye. The freshman year was augmented by the yearly Frosh Day carnations and the "Miracle Worker". Then in the sophomore year, he was greeted with the theorems of geometry and the theories of biology, the building of the Junior High and the bullets of the Kennedy assassination. In swept the junior year. Life whirled by in a gay procession of light and music -- "The King and I", the Junior Prom. On a warm autumn day of that fleeting year, with trees burning in color, two hundred joyful students descended into the past captured at Sturbridge. Yet this stop was brief, too, and with a bound, the student found himself a senior -- a leader of a young world, a novice of an adult one. The Christmas party, the "Music Man", the Frolics, then graduation followed in breathless succession.

He is free. The pressure of school is over, the pressure of college or work not yet begun. Time passes, wished away, worked away, played away. A time to remember are those formative years, a time of experiences and places, persons and faces -- strangers, teachers, friends, you.

POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL

Two days before Thanksgiving, Masco's braves and squaws switched their habitual roles on the happy playing grounds for Powderpuff Football. The girls became linebackers and linemen when the boys became the enthusiastic if less able rah-rah-ers. While the fair sex donned the sweatshirts of the super seniors or the teamshirts of the jaunty juniors, their masculine counterparts dressed in the skirts and sneakers of cheerleaders. Then the captains of each team (Nancy Ogden and Kathi Harries, seniors; Gay Mann and Carol Ballangee, juniors) shook hands in a temporary gesture of good will. Afterwards, the girls threw themselves into the game in an effort to win. Although Carol Ballangee scored the first touchdown, Leslie Nangle later tied the score 6-6 with a goal for the seniors. Each team was cheered on by scores of avid spectators and their harried but happy coach. Perhaps the teams lacked such "great" players as Wennerberg or Langers, but their beauty and spirit made up for any lack of skill.

Schön

On June fourth, the 1965 Junior-Senior Prom was held in the chandeliered ballroom of the Austrian palace, the "Schonbrunn". Reflected in a pool with dazzling splendor were couples who waltzed amid lofty pillars and landscaped gardens. The encompasing walls were hung with "tapestries" and paintings and shields.

The creation of this mystical palace took months of preparation. Although Kathi Harries and Sal Raciti were chosen as Prom Chairmen, several committees under their direction carried out plans for decorations, gifts, and refreshments. First, a theme, the "Schonbrunn", was chosen. Then the gold bracelets with Masco insignias and the two pieces of senior silver were purchased and wrapped; shrubbery and barrels were begged or borrowed, and the gymnasium was decorated. The hard-pressed committees created a palace fit for a princess. Indeed, eight princesses resided momentarily beneath that lofty roof, reigned over by a queen, Meg Jones, for one enchanted evening.

ORCHESTRA

GIRLS' CHORUS

From the depths of the auditorium or from behind the closed door of the music room continually comes The Sound of Music -- a chorus of voices, a beat of drums, a song of violins. The Music Department has grown to include nearly two hundred talented students in the orchestra, band, Singers, and Girls' Chorus. These musicians are caught practicing, and taking lessons and practicing some more. But by the time of the Christmas concert the goal is obtained-an excellent performance. This standard prevails throughout the operetta, the Spring Concert, and various exchange concerts and bandoramas.

Mr. Killian became the new director of orchestra and band. The Singers, under the direction of Miss Jarvie, is a choral group open to anyone after an audition. A new group, the Girls' Chorus, has grown in strength and quality over the year so that its freshmen will form a solid core for Singers next year.

The highlight for every musical artist is the Northeastern Music Festival held towards the end of the year. After earnest competition with other schools, the students relax from their efforts and join in the social activities at the Festival.

MAJORETTES

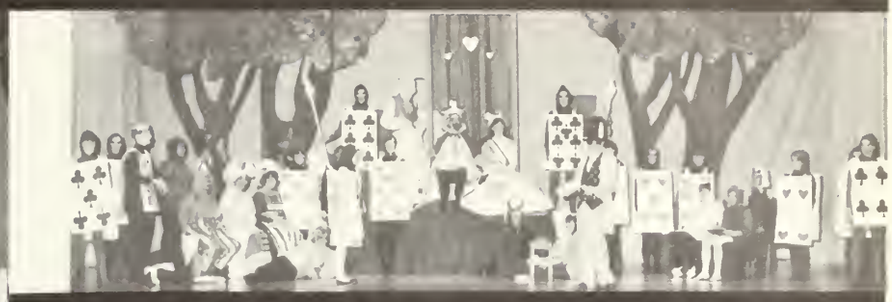
ALICE IN WONDERLAND



"We're all mad here. I'm mad. You're mad."
"How do you know that I'm mad?"
"You must be or you wouldn't have come" to the wonderfully mad production of "Alice in Wonderland." As a one-hundredth-year tribute to Lewis Carroll, author of two delightful "Alice" books, it was Masconomet's first attempt to produce a play from the children's theatre. "Alice" captivated capacity audiences on December tenth and eleventh. Who can forget the mad tea party, the green-yellow caterpillar, or the thump-thumping red chess queen? These characters were among a cast of fifty selected after tryouts of over one hundred hopefuls. Under the direction of Mrs. Jeannette Scholer, they became an experienced, congenial group. Bev Pierce played a memorable Alice, Jeff Maussner was a very nervous, timid White Rabbit, while Peter Sentkowski became Humpty-Dumpty and the Mad Hatter (for it IS a VERY MAD PLAY.) As newcomers to the theatre, Marie LeBeau (Red Chess Queen) and Marsha Donovan (White Chess Queen) also gave excellent performances. Others who definitely deserve recognition are Jim O'Brien and Judy Moore (King and Queen of Hearts), Gene Trask (Mock Turtle), Tim Gates (Caterpillar) and Lorraine Caso (Cheshire Cat.)

THEATER CLUB

FIRST ROW: Susan Schmehl, Jill Curtis, (Pres.); Beverly Pierce, Winki Brackley. SECOND ROW: Judy Moore, Cathy Jansen, Bonnie Richards, Judy Allen, Debby Raymond.

Who does not become excited as the theater curtain rises upon a new play? Certainly the members of the Theater Club do. They attend many theaters in the Boston vicinity where the full range of drama -- history, comedy, tragedy -- comes alive before them. Although each girl has a season ticket to the Charles' Playhouse, she attends other theaters as well. With Miss Marchalonis as advisor, the members develop a love for the smell of grease-paint and the roar of the crowd.

THESPIANS

The National Thespian Society is a high school dramatics organization officially recognized throughout the country. It is dedicated to the ideals of excellence and good taste in the dramatic arts. High standards are set for admission to the Thespian Society; thus, a good incentive is provided for those students participating in the school's dramatic productions. Students qualifying for membership are included into the society at one of the two yearly induction ceremonies.

HUCKLEBERRIES

Dedicated to the free exchange of ideas, the Huckleberries Club gives students an opportunity to state opinion without ridicule and to discuss ideas without repercussion. Its members only explore issues without attempting to solve them. Each attempts to discover his own truth, recognizing that truth holds only a tenuous position. Under the guidance of Miss Reynolds, the minds of the members are widened in knowledge and understanding of themselves and life.

RECEPTIONISTS

Each period a pretty girl is found seated at one of the desks near Masco's two front entrances; she is a member of the Receptionists' Club. Jean Watson, head receptionist, and the other club members convey an important first-impression of Masconomet to our visitors. A receptionist's duty is to escort any visitors to the office and present them to Mrs. Lynch.

LIBRARY AIDES

By relinquishing their study halls, students are able to help Mrs. Cory and Mrs. Ingraham with innumerable clerical processes as library aides. They undertake many tasks from checking out books for students to completing book processing for the librarians. As housekeepers, they shelve books and run errands. These tasks not only offer training for future librarians but also give the library aides the satisfaction of worthwhile toil.

BUSINESS CLUB

The Business Clus is actually an extension of the business courses offered at Masconomet. Designed for those girls who will pursue careers soon after graduation, it allows them "to acquire knowledge of the business world and experience in businesslike activities." Two meetings are planned each month. A Christmas party, guest speakers, movies, and a field trip to the Prudential Building are on this year's agenda.

STAGE CREW

Every activity using the stage requires the help of the stage crew. Lighting, audio-visual equipment, and set directions are always provided through the "professional" work of this group. This group is an indispensable part of each dramatic production. Special thanks should be extended to the stage crew for their work on "Alice in Wonderland," in which more than twenty elaborate sets were required.

ANNOUNCERS

Hear ye, Hear ye! The dispensers of news both foul and fair cry into the PA system each homeroom period. Members of the Announcer's Club under the direction of Mrs. Scholer, deliver Masco's sports results, advertisements, announcements and individual requests and ultimatums to members of the student body. They also run the PA system over which the announcements are made. In return for being amateur commentators, the announcers develop poise and discipline in addressing the student body.

MONITORS

In varied spots around Masco's hall stand the Monitors. With a guiding hand they direct hall traffic, upholding the codes of behavior set forth by the administration. No one dares to race down the wrong side of the corridor or chew gum without suffering the consequences of a summons to court. Here the monitors, led by President Dave Lewis, deliver the verdict of guilty or not guilty. They are police, judge, and jury of the school.

SKI CLUB

FIRST ROW: Paul Odell (Treas.), Gay Mann (Sec.), Pat Quinn (Vice Pres). SECOND ROW: Mr. Jervah (advisor), and Dave Evans (Pres).

Swirls of snow about a racing figure on skis is the image attracting so many students at Masco. The Ski Club fulfills this quest while attracting the largest club membership in the school. Under the supervision of Mr. Jervah, it takes various trips to the mountains of Vermont and New Hampshire. It allows Masco's guys and gals to see filmstrips on skiing and to become familiar with ski equipment. Most of all, the club allows them to enjoy the New England winters.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, a conscientious service organization, gives unselfishly of time and energy in a desire to achieve understanding between the student body and the faculty.

The Student Council is well represented in the matters of school policy, thanks to long hours of teamwork.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: Kathi Harries, Chris Banus, Lorraine Caso, Al Parziale. SECOND ROW: Beverly Pierce, Debbie Dupouy, Linda Raynes, Bruce Fernie, Leslie Nangle, Leigh Dresser, and Mrs. Fullerton (advisor).

The Honor Society is part of a national body composed of people whose scholastic and extra-curricular activities merit them such distinction. The members sponsor a tutoring program within our school and an annual "Christmas Cornucopia," a collection of food for needy families in the area.

MITOBO

Certainly one of the biggest and most complicated productions at Masconomet, the Mitobo yearbook includes a seven member editorship and numerous staff members. In the seventh year of existence, Mitobo has become a concentrated, conscientious effort to record the sights and ideas of Masconomet in '66. Late nights of writing, typing, and censoring have all contributed to this yearbook. These processes have been carefully supervised by Kathryn Harries, Editor-in-Chief, and our advisor, Mrs. Cory, with credit also belonging to the staff and their editors: Assistant Editor, Janice Kroll; Literary Editor, Kathryn Sayer; Art Editor, Alfred Parziale; Photography Editor, Eric Ansteensen; Subscription Editor, Christine Pilczuk; and Advertisting Editor, Marie LeBeau. These students have all worked diligently to produce the best possible yearbook, this Mitobo of 1966.

KALEIDOSCOPE

FIRST ROW: Sue Forgione, Winkie Brackley, Donna Waters, Hope Andrew, Christine Pilczuk. SECOND ROW: Janice Kroll, Judy Spakowski, and Jackie Silva.

Kaleidoscope, Masconomet's own literary magazine, won the New England Press Association Award for the second straight year. This was earned for excellence in the field of high school publications. The present staff, under Beverly Pierce, promises to keep the high standards which have been previously set, by affording students the opportunity to see their creative artwork and writing in print.

STUDENT EXCHANGE BOARD

This organization has brought to life the concept of foreign student exchange at Masconomet. The Student Exchange Board furthers international friendship and understanding among students by supervising and helping to finance the exchange of Masconomet and foreign students. This group, made up of students, grades 9-12, is associated with the Masconomet Ambassador's Club.

The Board, presided over by Kathi Harries, participates in various fund-raising projects. These include an annual candy sale, an International Night, and the selling of refreshments at various school events. This year, through the efforts of the Student Exchange Board and the English Department, Masconomet is pleased to be host to three European students: Kari Piltti, Sally Croft, and Jennifer Batham.

KARI PILTTI

The exchange student from Finland, Kari Piltti, was an immediate success with the student body. In the first assembly, he displayed a warm congeniality and a quick humor. As we grew to know him, we also recognized his easy acceptance of American customs while retaining the characteristics of his own people. He not only was a member of the ice hockey team, but participated in other school activities. He will be missed when he returns to his home this summer in order to continue a career in languages.

JENNIFER BATHAM

SALLY CROFT

Jennifer Batham and Sally Croft came to us from England this year. Their personalities and subtle British humor have added an international outlook to our Senior Class. When they return home Sally hopes to pursue the career of an accountant, while Jenny will complete two more years of school before continuing her education at college.

PROVISIONAL MEMBERS

BIOLOGY CLUB

Supporting the Masco science program, the Biology Club aims to develop the individual student's interest in the many aspects of the biological sciences. Terry Moore presides over informal discussions and organizes with Mr. Sangermano various trips. A high point of this year's activities was a field trip to tidal pools, in which various specimens of marine life were found.

RADIO CLUB

FIRST ROW: Steve Barnum, Jay Ballard, Pres.; Dave Hammond, Vice Pres. SECOND ROW: Glenn Shield, Rick Baker, John Maguire, Doug Grouber and Mr. Carpenter, advisor.

Composed of students interested in radio engineering, the Radio Club helps members to obtain amateur radio licenses. It provides these students with a school station and the proper equipment to encourage them toward a career in professional broadcasting.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

FIRST ROW: Dick Geary, Dana Prior, Scott Prior, Rick Feher, Dave Benson. SECOND ROW: Lloyd Farrin, Harry Lindsey, and Miss Swenson, advisor.

Members of the Photography Club carry about little black boxes in which they capture moments of time in print. After developing, the pictures are used throughout the school year in various publications. Many may be found within the pages of this MITOBO.

MATH TEAM

Under the superior coaching of Mr. Paarlberg and Mr. Campbell, the Math Team is able to compete each month in two math leagues. Their equipment is elementary -- a sharp pencil and a questioning mind. Yet through practice, every member is able to raise his Board scores, while contributing to the point-power. Since each grade contributes members to the team, the future remains promising.

FINGER PAINTING IV

Finger painting IV is the unoffical advertising agency for many of Masco's functions. Not only do the members paint signs and posters for the football and basketball rallies, but they also design show-cases. Through field trips and lectures, the club also promotes interest in fine paintings and sculpture.

FOLKSINGING CLUB

FIRST ROW: Linda Mitchell, Marna Carlton, Laurel Giannino, Gail Hutchinson. SECOND ROW: Walker Carlson, Beth Canning, Kathy Molker, Natalie Forbes, Linda Shipley, Jeff Maussner.

Lovers of blue-grass and ballads congregate in the Folk Singer's Club. Accompanied by the strum of guitars and the hum of harmonicas. the members sing favorite songs. Meetings are also supplemented by discussions and field trips into Boston. These activities, initiated by President Jeff Maussner, have all contributed to the current revival of folk music.

HOME EC CLUB

By exploring the fields of interior design and economical buying, the Home Economics Club produces better homemakers. As President, Sue Bullerwell leads discussions in efficient home planning. The club also takes field trips and plans such activities as a Christmas show. Needlework and sewing remain as always an important part of the club.

CHEFS CLUB

FIRST ROW: Bob Gregory, John Bowers, Mark MacGill. SECOND ROW: George Chittenden, Don Ingalls, Joseph Burke.

The delectable odors coming from the Home Economics room often may be attributed to the Chef's Club. Here the boys show their ability with spoon and batter by creating soups, sauces, and even souffles. With such a delicious abundance of talent the kitchen may soon be turned over to the men!

FUTURE NURSES

FIRST ROW: Pam White, Dorothy Veilleux, Kathy Knudsen, Pres.; Debbie Houston, Vice Pres.; Nancy Klaila, Sue Lindh. SECOND ROW: Barbara MacQuarrie, Sue Murphy, Cathie Page, Mary Jo Coddington, Tynne Rubchinuk, Carol Walker, Ginny Hobson.

The Future Nurses Club was founded in 1963. Working under the guidance of their advisor, Mrs. Hoogerzeil, they received their charter from the F. N. A. one year later. By seeing movies, and listening to speakers the members learn elementary nursing procedures. The girls have done small favors for hospital patients and thus learned the rewards of giving.

PEP SQUAD

Always found at our important games and rallies, the Pep Squad rouses school spirit among the Masconomet spectators. Wearing berets and the school colors they help the cheerleaders lead the cheers, and exhibit enough enthusiasm at touchdowns or baskets to spread it throughout the student body.

LEADERS CLUB

FIRST ROW: Debby Raymond, Leslie Nangle, Treas.; Charlene Mansfield, Kathy Gaither, Jil Lord, Leigh Dresser, Angie Sgroi, Susan Frizzell, Bev Pierce, Laurie Wyman. SECOND ROW: Catherine Clarke, Adv.; Nancy Sayer, Sharon Curtis, Carolyn Gauthier, Bonnie Richards, Beth Clark, Karol Asbjornson, Norine Denault, Lauren Littlefield, Gay Mann, Vice Pres. THIRD ROW: Judi Spakowski, Barbara Unger, Pres.; Charlene Peters, Alice Kenny, Diane Waters, Polly Peterson, Patsy Peterson, and Ellen Pitt.

Outsiders often think of a Leader as the girl in the white gym suit who runs about assisting the physical education teacher. The aim of Leader's Club is to develop the individual. Through her frequently embarrassing mistakes a member learns self-reliance and leadership. Eligibility is determined after completing successfully written, oral and practical examinations.

GAA OFFICERS

FIRST ROW: Leslie Nangle, Pres.; Gay Mann, Vice Pres.; Andrea Sgroi, Pt. Sec.; Barbara Unger, Pt. Sec.; Miss Weir, Adv.; and Lauren Littlefield, Treas.

The Girl's Athletic Association is organized to give awards of recognition to outstanding members of the various girls' sports. These awards are arranged on a point system. The girls receive awards according to the number of events in which they have participated. The awards range from a sports letter, through gold bowls, to the highest awards, blankets.

CROSS COUNTRY

As always, our cross-country team, the Chieftain Harriers, remained undefeated in League competition; however, their winning streak of forty-seven games was broken by the Concord, New Hampshire team. Co-captain Chris Banus won every meet in which he ran while setting seven new records. His brother, Greg, a junior, often placed second and promises to give even greater support to the team next year. Other outstanding team members were Co-captain Dave Evans, and Chuck Carlson, Jeff Hosterman, and Steve Crowe. The Chieftains, under coach Gregorchik, deserve to be commended for a fine record.

The football team finished with their fourth straight winning season, this year beating Pentucket 32-14. The team opened with a 22-12 win over Lynn Trade, but injuries proved fatal as they lost the next two games to Hamilton-Wenham and Attleboro. One of the highlights of the season was at the Manchester game in which the Chieftains roared from behind with two touchdowns in the second half to win in the last minute 16-14. North Reading fell next, 20-0, followed by another come-from-behind win over Lynnfield 28-8, avenging last year's upset. Bad luck and more injuries made the difference as they lost to Ipswich and North Andover. The final win over Pentucket saw every man in our backfield and ends score, while Dick Wennerberg threw four touchdown passes and Joe Langis led the ground attack. At the banquet Dick and Joe were named players of the year, Dick for offense and Joe for defense. The victory over Pentucket was the team's fourth in as many years.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Field Hockey Team improved over last year's record with three wins, three ties, and five losses. Accounting for much of this year's enthusiasm and uniqueness were the nine seniors (FRONT ROW). Lauren Littlefield and Elaine Crossman served admirably as managers and Miss Clarke was coach.

SPIRIT, SPIRIT

"For today, hurray! the red and white above the rest" bursts out in enthusiasm for the many victorious teams. This special spirit is especially whipped up at rallies and games by our lively cheerleaders. With pep and vigor these ten girls have led spectators through cheer after cheer. Yet the polished skill of these girls was accomplished only after hours of practice. Under the direction of Miss Graham, captain Sally Yardley has led onto the field and court Jan Houser, Charlene Mansfield, Judi Blanchard, Carol Perry, Pat Quinn, Barbara Kelley, and Debbie Dupouy. The girls form the core of spirit and zeal at every game and should be congratulated for bringing out the school spirit in the student body.

HOCKEY 1966

Boasting a record of 11-2-2, the Chieftains completed another successful hockey season. By winning their second consecutive Merrimack Valley League championship, they received another invitation to the state hockey tournament. The twenty-two varsity players provided many exciting moments as they out-skated and out-shot the five other league teams. High scorers for the season were Tom Eremian (26 pts.), Captain Mike Taft (22pts.), and Captain Peter Sennott (18 pts). Tom Eremian with his 26 points was the high scorer of the Merrimack Valley League and among the top ten players in Massachusetts. Bob Getchell was also outstanding, being credited with an impressice 220 saves. Hockey went international when the exchange student, Kari Piltti joined the team and scored several goals. Outstanding games included the Nashua win when Masconomet scored a goal in the last 43 seconds of play. As witnessed by the many avid spectators, the games at Billerica offered the excitement of of close games and outstanding plays.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

The exciting new sport for girls at Masconomet this year was girl's gymnastics. Although this is their first year in competition, the team has achieved a 3-3 record and five girls are eligible to participate in the state gymnastics meet: Carol Paveski, Susan Frizzell, Dona Trask, Sharon Kuzel, and Sharon Curtis (Captain). These girls have qualified for this event by their skillful performance of difficult moves on the bars, beam, and horse. Other events for girls include free exercise, tumbling, and the trampoline. The girls are judged on the difficulty of the stunt, its execution, and their general appearance. Much of the credit for their fine performance is due to the coaching of Miss Clark.

BASKETBALL

Masco's basketball team, under a new and tougher 18 game schedule, boasted an excellent 13-5 final record. This qualified the boys in the Tech Tourney again for the third consecutive year. Although they lost five of the first thirteen games, the team rebounded with wins in the last five. Some of the games offered particular excitement. The team's second game with Ipswich, for example, avenged an early season's loss. Unlike the first game in which a 17 point lead became a 6 point loss, the Chieftains opened up a 14 point lead at the half and extended it to a 23 point lead, winning 68-45. The obvious climax of the season was Masco's 71-66 win over Hamilton-Wenham. The victory, the largest over the Generals since 1963, gave Coach Tozier his sixth consecutive Tech Tourney team and his first win over Hamilton-Wenham. Captains Dick Wennerberg and Dave Lewis together averaged 35 points a game. Dave Benson, the third man on the team to average double figures, was the mainstay of the team's defense. Phil Riley and Ken MacGill came off the bench early in the season to become starters for the varsity team. Bruce Chuluda added needed heighth and rebounding strength for the team. He alternated starting assignments with Rick Colcord, a transfer student who showed tremendous shooting prowess. These seniors will be sorely missed next year, but will be remembered for their fine playing.

BOY'S GYMNASTICS

The gymnastics team experienced a rebuilding season with a final record of 4-4. This fine record allowed them to place third in the Merrimack Valley League tournament held in Winthrop. Three members of the team showed such exceptional ability that they further qualified for the state meet: Dave King on the still rings, Bill Work in tumbling, and Greg Benson on the side horse. Co-captain Dave King, for instance, lost only once in seven meets, and placed third in the conference meet with Co-captain Greg Benson taking second place. Although the team's record was lower than last year's, the win over North Reading has created a new high gymnastics record (98-77) at Masconomet. In each of three other meets the team also scored over ninety points, an exceptional record for a high school team. The gymnastics team deserves congratulations on an excellent season.

Yoken's "Thar She Blows"

And with a sigh we finish this yearbook. The school year of 1965-66 has been the beginning and the end of everything and nothing. While some complete their formal education with this year's end, others are only beginning to pursue enlightenment and knowledge. While some reach out for opportunity and change, others return to conservatism and tradition. While some find themselves, others only discover that a self existed. Yet each student values these memories of intellectual, emotional, and spiritual growth. If this MITOBO adds clarity and brightness to those reflections, our effort is rewarded.
